Introduction

COURSE OVERVIEW

In this 3-month course (12 sessions of 1 hour each), students will explore the art of communication through kinesthetic theatrical activities. This course will introduce the learners to the essentials of public speaking—such as speech preparation, public speaking delivery techniques, and audience interaction—while using drama and performance to enhance their skills.

The final objective and milestone of this course will be to take the LAMDA (London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art) examination and apply their newfound skill.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- 1. At what age can I enrol my child? Are there any prerequisites?

This course is appropriate for students in school grade 4 and above. Students are grouped with peers of their age and level of development.
- 2. How long is the programme?

This is a 3 month programme with 12 sessions. The classes are held once a week for one hour —same time every week. You will receive a calendar at the time of enrolment to help plan your schedule.
- 3. Can I join the programme after the start date?

Since this is a short programme, we do not take new students once the course has started. However, you may get added to our waitlist so that you can join the next cohort.
- 4. What if the student misses a session?

We do not offer make up turns. The onus of missed learning is on the student. Their facilitator will assist them to help catch up.
- 5. What happens after completion of the programme?

After completion, the student may enrol to the next level and continue to develop the skills.
- 6. What is the fee for this programme?

Please reach out to our enrolment team for fee details, as they differ based on levels. Our programme fee does not include the cost for LAMDA examination and certification. No refunds once enrolled.
- 7. What is the schedule for this programme?

Please reach out to our enrollment team for the schedule.
- 8. Can the parent / guardian sit in the classroom?

We do not permit parents / guardians to sit in the classroom or observe from outside the classroom, as this is a safe space for children to explore and work with the teacher and their peers. You may reach out to the faculty for any concerns throughout the year.
